Frank, Frank, Goldstein & Nager PC Selected As Finalist For SmartCEO's 2015 New York CPA & ESQ Awards

New York, NY, June 3, 2015 – Frank, Frank, Goldstein & Nager PC, one of New York's oldest debt collection law firms, has been selected as a finalist in SmartCEO's 2015 CPA & ESQ Awards program.

Frank, Frank, Goldstein & Nager PC (FFGN) has been selected as a finalist along with 22 other firms by an independent committee of local business leaders. Winners in several categories will be announced at a reception to be held June 22, 2015 in New York City and honored as one of the region's most enterprising attorneys who have had an outstanding impact on their clients' businesses. The program honors professionals' "leadership, accomplishment, innovation" and efforts to "help New York's CEOs attain new levels of success," according to the organization.

Jocelyn Nager, President and Managing Partner of FFGN, explains that their clients rely on her firm for commercial debt collection and litigation matters, as well as her ongoing educational efforts to help her clients and the business community improve their credit and debt collection policies and procedures through her regular workshops. "Our clients have reduced their risk and exposure to uncollectable claims. As a result, clients get paid more often and claims placed for collection are more collectable resulting in an overall increased rate of recovery and profitability."

Jocelyn is a member of the Board of Directors of the Executives' Association of New York City and occupies the sole attorney seat on the Board of the International Association of Commercial Collectors (IACC), and member of the Steering Committee for the Women's President Education Organization.
